You matter. He's out there making music and found success doing what he's passionate about as opposed to this idea that he should "go to college; be responsible; get a family; be an engineer. Since this did come from a play by Rodgers and Hart, who were noted for their risqueness, I have a feeling that the beanies originally signified maidenhood. I have replayed everything that happened on that day at least a million times in my mind through all these years.
