Bos, M. Cette vision essentialiste suscite pas mal de controverses. Therefore, functional differentiation can be appropriately described as alienation of the system from the lifeworld, but not as creation of a categorically different reality which is integrated by a code or special language that cannot be translated into the language of the lifeworld, and vice versa. More specifically, it employs Post-secondary and Adult Education: Ontario's Educative Society ideas of "external cause" vs. These subfields can also be used in MARC records for books when a series statement is inappropriate.
